

Build Back Better

Prepare to Pivot and Build Back Better programme

1 Co-vid Impact Assessment

2 Drivers & Implications of the Build Back Better Economy

3 Developing Options to Pivot and Build Back Better

4 Prioritisation, Development of Build Back Better Plan

5 Review of Pivot plan and lessons learned

Enables your key business participants to discuss and develop a shared and agreed understanding of:

- the status of your business in relation to the COVID-19 experience to date and on-going crisis
- the key challenges facing the business
- review new strengths and capabilities developed during the crisis

Provides your core business team with:

- A tailored update for your business on the key macro trends and drivers emerging from the Covid-19 crisis that are driving the ambition for a build back better economy
- Insights and extended thinking on new opportunities and possibilities
- A facilitated structured debate on the implications of these trends for your business

Enables your team to:

- Consolidate thinking and ideas on how your business can become more sustainable and resilient.
- Review the macro drivers of a sustainable business recovery how these trends may impact your business
- Use of a proven method/framework acquire new insights about the emerging post-crisis opportunities for your business

Validate and build consensus around:

- Pivot Opportunities aligned with your business needs and core competences
- Priorities, new opportunities and realistic and a recovery pathway
- A practical Pivot Action Plan to enable the business to Build Back Better

Detailed Review Pivot Programme Sponsors to enable:

- a formal checkpoint on progress within 2 weeks following the previous step.
- a comprehensive, mentored review of lessons learned on the programme and to discuss any on-going business challenges.
- the business to maintain the momentum and enthusiasm created in the programme to ensure progress with its Build Back Better Plan.